

COLUMBIASOFT™ RENEWS PARTNERSHIP WITH MICROSOFT®

The document management software company extends its Gold Certified Partner status with Microsoft for a sixth consecutive year.

Portland, Ore. – January 22, 2009 – ColumbiaSoft, a leading-provider of Microsoft-based document management software, announced today that it has renewed its partnership with Microsoft as an Independent Software Vendor (ISV) / Software Solutions provider. The announcement marks the sixth consecutive year that ColumbiaSoft has maintained its Gold Certified status, the highest level of partnership with Microsoft.

“Our close partnership with Microsoft aligns with our objective to deliver Microsoft-centric solutions that help businesses control and manage corporate knowledge in ways that are easy and transparent for employees,” said ColumbiaSoft executive vice president of worldwide sales and marketing, David Pogue. “People use Microsoft applications every day, and we’re connecting people with the document management solutions they need right within the software they use on a daily basis.”

ColumbiaSoft’s document management system, Document Locator®, offers a package of tools that includes document management, document imaging, document versioning, document workflow, records management, collaboration, and more. Seamless integration with Microsoft Windows® presents these capabilities in a familiar user environment that appears just like a folder on a desktop or a shared file server. Integration with other Microsoft applications like Office®, Outlook®, and SharePoint®, further improves usability and user-adoption by allowing people to remain in these common business applications while performing document management functions.
